John P. Hall Retires From The Board Of Health

Ulster County Legislature's Health Committee Chairman Robert S. Parete presented a Pride of Ulster County award to Mr. John P. Hall on the occasion of his retirement from the Board of Health at the completion of the Board's monthly meeting on Monday, August 14, 2006. Mr. John P. Hall, an Accord resident, served on the Board of Health from 1967 to date.

Health Committee Chairman Robert S. Parete said, "On behalf of the Ulster County Legislature, I am honored to present this award to Mr. Hall for his years of commitment and dedication to the residents of Ulster County. Mr. Hall is known for his decency, honesty and as being a fine, upstanding and highly respected member of our community. The passion and dedication he served this county with will be greatly missed. It is a pleasure to wish him and his wife, their children and grandchildren all the best in future endeavors."
